Stage B – executing a purchase with the card

3. A customer contacts the a vendor and asks to purchase a certain product or service. The customer submits the card number and the relevant identifying code to the vendor.
4. The vendor delivers the card number and identifying code to the issuing company for authorization.
5. The issuing company checks the card's details. If the card number exists, the identifying code fits it, and the card contains the amount of money requested, the transaction is approved, and the issuing company gives an authorization for it, to the vendor.
6. The vendor notifies the customer that the transaction is authorized.
